MORE JULY SPECIAL EVENTS

PAULA SAYWORD
POETRY READING AND BOOK SIGNING
Sunday, July 25 , 1 pm

Paula Sayword's chapbook, What Sleeps Inside will be published by Slate Roof Press early this summer. In a review of the book, poet Carol Potter writes: "Sayword's voice is a voice of quiet beauty... From the beaches outside New Haven, CT, to the landscape of the Southwest and the hilltops of New England, these poems are the poems of someone who has long been paying full attention... There is wisdom in these pages, quiet, meticulous observations... This is a beautiful collection of poems. Sensual, redemptive, sorrowful, wise and full of magic."

NEW - KIDS TABLE !!!
At the Ramah Farmer's Market, Sat. 10 am

EMAAC artists will provide hands-on activities for kids. A different activity every Saturday in July. Supplies will be furnished.

Introductory Workshop in Natural Topbar Beekeeping

with Les Crowder

July 17 - 18, Saturday from 10am - 4 pm
and Sunday from 12 - 3 pm.

Learn to keep honeybees in your own backyard in home-built topbar hives using organic methods of honeybee management. We will look into topbar hives, learn basic bee biology, and talk about the honeybee as a super-organism and its vital role in our agricultural system. Students will receive hive designs, and information on how to begin caring for honeybees, harvesting honey and refining beeswax for home-made candles, balms and other wax products. $100 for individuals and couples. For more information and to register, contact Kate Wilson: (505) 783-4704 and leave a message.

AUGUST SPECIAL EVENTS

BARGELLO QUILTING CLASS

Sunday, Aug 1, 11am – 5pm, $30

Learn to make a breathtaking Bargello quilt that encourages you to experiment with color, contrast and texture. Susan Ackerman will share how to make this amazingly beautiful quilt. You can view her quilt, along with samples at the Old School Gallery & the Ramah Farmers' Market. You need to know how to use a sewing machine and sew ¼ inch straight seams. Space is limited. You will need to pay for the class to receive your supply list and have enough time to gather your supplies and prepare for the class. A coupon for a discount on fabric at Gallup Service Mart will be provided with the supply list. Please sign up at the Gallery (783-4710). Call Susan (783-4475) with questions. (See September events about follow-up meeting)

SLOW KNITTING FOR BEGINNERS

Sundays, Aug 8 - 29, 1:30 - 4 pm, FREE

Claire Knowles will lead these classes and experienced knitters will provide a one-on-one learning situation. Each class introduces a useful project. Supplies listed in each class description. Sign up at the Gallery (783-4710) so we have the right number of experienced knitters. Call Claire (783-4900) with questions.

Aug. 8, 12:00 pm – 2:30 pm (* Time is different for this class). Learn to cast on, knit, increase, decrease, cast off & other basics. Supplies: one ball of Sugar & Cream cotton yarn (at Hobby Lobby, Michael's, and WalMart), size 10 needles, scissors, size "G" or "H" crochet hook.

Aug. 15, 1:30 - 4 pm Learn to purl and practice basics. You will make a spa cloth. Same supplies as first class.

Aug. 22, 1:30 - 4 pm Make a scarf. Supplies: Approx. 4 oz. of wool or acrylic yarn and needles.

Aug. 29, 1:30 - 4 pm Learn new stitches and create a sampler. Supplies: 2 oz. of yarn.

Classes are FREE, but we encourage a generous donation to the Old School Gallery.

"RIDE THAT PONY" CONCERT

Saturday, August 7, 7:30 pm, $8

Presenting the beauty and mystery of the Southwest as seen by brilliant singer-songwriters Don & Victoria Armstrong. Santa Fe residents, Don and Victoria play and sing cowboy songs, inspired Mexican songs and evocative, sensitive originals in an ever-expanding repertoire of hauntingly beautiful compositions overlaid with stunning vocal harmonies. Don & Victoria have written songs that were recorded by Judy Collins, John Denver, Jerry Jeff Walker, Bill Staines, Bill & Bonnie Hearne and many more. David Bromberg is recording Victoria's "Lovin' Of The Game" on his new CD.

DAVID WEBER SPEAKS!

Sunday, August 8, 4-6 pm, FREE

Join historian and local resident David Weber as he presents an illustrated talk on his latest publication about the SouthWest's colorful history. Fiasco: George Clinton Gardner's Correspondence from the U.S.-Mexico Boundary Survey of 1849-1854.

One reviewer has written of the book: "Masterfully edited and annotated, these personal letters of a young American surveyor paint a detailed and colorful portrait of the men and women, Indians, Mexicans & Americans of the border region at the moment of its making."

OPEN MIC NIGHT!

Saturday, Sept 11, 7 pm, $5

Step into the spotlight. Share your talent. Provide applause for your friends and neighbors. An evening of (mostly) local poets, singers, dancers, storytellers, and ...who knows! If you want to perform, please sign up at the Gallery and arrive early to check in with the evening's Emcee! Yummy refreshments always available!

"I feel a recipe is only a theme, which an intelligent cook can play each time with a variation."

Madame Benoit

ENCORE! ENCORE! SHIRLEY VALENTINE RETURNS

Fri. & Sat., Sept 24 & 25, 7:30 pm $10

Carlisle Ellis, an EMAAC favorite thespian, reprises her performance of "Shirley Valentine, the 50-something housewife from Liverpool who talks to her kitchen walls. When she gets the chance to spend a fortnight in Greece, she takes it, leaving kitchen walls and husband behind. She finds, to her amazement, that she likes herself! Join Carlisle in exploring this character created by Willy Russell.

THE ART OF TANNING HIDES

with Scott & Charla Seciwa-Koons

Sat-Sun, Sept 11-12, 9 am– 5 pm, $40

Back by popular demand, the workshop teaches the traditional way of tanning hides, from taking the skin to making it into something useful. Animal skins and tools will be provided or you may bring a hide you want to tan. Bring sack lunch, snacks and drinks. The class will be outside all day, so dress accordingly. Children must be at least 10 years old and accompanied by a parent. We must have at least six people for the class, so sign up at the Gallery (783-4710). For information and directions, call Scott (505-495-8083).

TASTING PARTY AND BRUNCH

Sunday, Sept 12, 11 am, $5

TO ALL EMAAC MEMBERS!!! Art Donations for Fundraising Raffle

The annual Arts Raffle has been great for our organization. Last year's ticket sales brought in $1227. In the past, member artists have generously donated original art works. This year we are opening the Art Donations to All EMAAC Members who wish to donate paintings, ceramics, fiber art, photography, jewelry, antiques, etc. which they feel are suitable for the Arts Raffle. All donations are tax deductible and will be acknowledged with a letter. Some items will be selected for a Silent Auction, some for the Raffle. All will be awarded at the Annual Meeting, Saturday, Oct. 5, 5:30 pm. Please deliver your donations to the gallery or call Harry Hutton (783-4441) to arrange for pick up at your home. We would like to gather the works soon to display and include in photos on posters & website, to help sell the Raffle Tickets on Saturdays at the Farmers Market and at the Gallery. Many thanks for your consideration of this request and for supporting EMAAC.

TO ALL EMAAC ARTISTS!!! Gallery Art Inventory

The Gallery Committee and Docents have completed a physical inventory of all sales and exhibition art in the Gallery. It is being entered into a QuickBooks database and given all new inventory code numbers. You should soon receive a printout of your inventoried pieces. We will now be able to better track sales and length of time that pieces do not sell. Your monthly reconciliation checks will be produced by the new system. A revised, streamlined Artist Agreement will also be distributed for your approval. Thanks for your patience and input during this transition process.!

The El Morro Area Arts Council promotes all of our very creative and talented Member Artists & their Art through Artist Exhibitions, Art Sales & our Website. If you have an artist website, please email emaac@wildblue.net with your web address so we can Link you to www.oldschoolgallery.org

Membership Notes

From the Executive Director

Members and Friends,

I am deeply honored to be thoroughly welcomed as the new Executive Director of EMAAC! So many have been so enthusiastic and kind to me, which I feel is a lovely way to begin this new adventure! My special thanks to Paula. She has left a legacy I respect and intend to build upon. I would also like to give a most hearty thanks to both Barbara Duncan and Gerry Ackerman for lending me their ears and expertise as I find my rhythm. As always, Harriet is there to answer my many questions- thanks to her always. And most of all thanks to my partner Mike. His love and support is what has made this new commitment to this community possible for me. Frankly, I have been touched to see so many community members, board members, docents, and friends pull together and pitch in as we ease through this transition together. What a blessing to have each other!

I believe our lives are a work of art. For me, to consciously create beauty helps to align myself with my deepest, divine truth. I see beauty everywhere in this community, and am grateful to have the opportunity to help support the further expansion and development of such beauty in this concrete, substantive way. Every dream and vision needs a solid foundation to ground and manifest. As Executive Director of El Morro Arts Council, I am taking partial responsibility to consciously build and sustain these foundations. As a co-creator, I welcome the inspiration and love I see as necessary to sustain the integrity of these efforts.

I welcome your feedback, and hope that you will all continue to share your needs, criticisms, inspirations, and dreams with me as we grow together.

From the President

Friends,

Writing this after an Open Mic evening of talent, energy and humor, makes me thankful for two core strengths of EMAAC—diversity and generosity. It was a night of newcomers and old-timers, youngsters and not-so-youngsters, professional performers and first timers, technical glitches and everyone pitching in to put away chairs, and great desserts. Just another night at the Old School Gallery! Please make welcome our new Executive Director, Genevieve, and help her as she masters the myriad of tasks and details that keep the Gallery serving all our needs. Mega thanks to Gerry Ackerman and Barbara Duncan who kept things running in transition time.

As we approach the beginning of our fiscal year (Aug. 1), the Board is making budget plans which consider grant money reductions because of state budget cuts, smaller business donations and an end to the federal “stimulus” funds that have been such a boon this year. It will be a challenge to maintain the quality and quantity of programming and services we offer.

Thanks to all artists and docents who are participating (we’re still working on it) in setting up a computerized system for art inventory and artist payments. This change coincides with upgrading to QuickBooks computerized book-keeping. Another big thanks to Gerry Ackerman for setting this up and entering data and, oh yes, donating a new laptop computer!!!

Welcome to new Board member Kirk Shoemaker who is our Webmaster and newsletter layout artist and more! I am so grateful to all Board members. Each has taken on and accomplished great things for our organization.
