

El Morro Area Arts Council News

Volume 15, Issue 1 First Quarter 2012

Whew!! The last 6 months remind me of my long climb up to the top of Bond Mesa on October 1st for a spectacular aerial view of El Morro Village, the Old School Gallery, the Ancient Way Fall Harvest Festival tents, & the flurry of excited activity below. While I'm tired, winded & need to take a breather, the climb has been well worth it. I sit here looking back in awe & appreciation for all of the planning, creativity, work, fun, community spirit, contributions, special events, gatherings, festivals, rehearsals, meetings, theater, concerts, workshops, home grown sustenance & artwork that our unique community has magically "spun & woven" into this amazingly beautiful, living Tapestry that we call El Morro Valley.

As I sit here looking around me, I see and feel a similar mood in the community. There is a slowing down, a pause, a peacefulness as the cold Winter settles in and we re-ignite our warm, blazing fires at home where we can rest in semi-hibernation and enjoy a quieter, slower pace for the next 3 months... until the March "breezes" bring a quickening, a warming, renewal, new life, new beginnings, new hopes & dreams that we will nurture into fruition in the coming year.

DIGITAL ARTS CLUB

Art Exhibition Opening & Reception
 Sunday, February 12, 3:00 - 5:00 pm
The Way Home

Reader's Theater Play by local Playwright, Jerako
Maybe God Is Trying To Tell You Something
 Friday & Saturday, February 10, 11, 7 pm - $5

Jerako cordially invites all of you to attend a staged reading of his new screenplay, written right here in Candy Kitchen. The story takes place one day in the life of Carol, a recently widowed woman somewhere in America. Her life unravels as she discovers everything she thought was right and good is turned on its head. The script deals frankly and honestly with family, sexuality and religion. Our community is incredibly diverse in these terms, and I am asking you for your heartfelt and honest feedback. February 10th & 11th at 7:00 pm, $5 suggested donation.

Calling All
 Fiber Crafters
 & Quilters

Fiber Festival & Quilt Show
Saturday, April 28th, 10 am - 3 pm

Mark Your Calendars! We are calling all quilters and fiber crafters to participate. Call Susan Ackerman about the Quilt Show at 783-4475. For all other questions call Kate Wilson at 783-4704 (leave a message)

JANUARY SPECIAL EVENTS

Beginners & Beyond Spinning Classes
with Elyse Angel, January 26, February 23, and March 22,
10 am - 2 pm at the Oso Ridge Spinning and Weaving School and Fiber Arts Studio, $5 person, per class.

This was such a success last quarter that we wanted to continue! See this issue of the newsletter for additional spinning dates and locations scheduled that may be more accommodating. Whether a beginner that has never tried spinning or an intermediate who can use a drop spindle or spinning wheel but is ready for more, these classes are for you. Elyse has been spinning for many years and creates beautiful, one-of-a-kind clothing and more. With her guidance, beginners will start on the drop spindle and the intermediates will become more proficient with the craft. We will be working in the cozy atmosphere of a beautifully reconstructed cabin in the woods. There will be drop spindles and wool for purchase or bring your own equipment and fibers. You will need to bring a sack lunch and your own drinks and snacks. Carpooling is a possibility. For directions and questions: call Elyse Angel (505)699-8949 - leave a message.

Spinning Get Togethers

Sat. Jan. 14 at the Old School Gallery, 1:00 - 4:00 pm, Sat. Feb. 11 at Cindy Blea's house from 1:00 - 4:00 pm, Thurs. Mar. 8 at Susan McNabb's house from 10:00 AM - 2:00 pm - Free.

If you have wanted to learn to spin but the dates and times have not worked for your schedule, perhaps some of these options of dates and times will. Beginners are welcome and some materials will be available for purchase. Join us and learn this most enjoyable craft.

For directions call Cindy Blea (783-2439), Susan McNabb (783-9019).

Auditions for "Reader's Theater" Play by local Playwright, Jerako

My name is Jerako and I would like to cordially invite you to participate in a staged reading of my new screenplay, written right here in Candy Kitchen. The story takes place one day in the life of Carol, a recently widowed woman somewhere in America. Her life unravels as she discovers everything she thought was right and good is turned on its head. The script deals frankly and honestly with family, sexuality and religion. Our community is incredibly diverse in these terms, and I am asking you for your heartfelt and honest feedback. Auditions will be held in early January, and there will be a short rehearsal period (3-5 meetings). Performances will be on February 10th and 11th at 7pm. Anyone interested in auditioning, please contact me, jerako.maya@gmail.com or call 505-775-4445. Thank you for your participation in this exciting, original work!

Knitting Finishing Get Togethers

Sundays, Jan. 22, & Feb. 19,
Saturday March 3, 1:00 - 4:00 pm

From the Executive Director

Dear friends,

Thanks for all of your participation in the last year and here's to the coming year! Our Community and Gallery continue to amaze me. I hope everyone has a warm, safe, and creative Winter. In love and solidarity.... Genevieve

From the President

Happy New Year!

Well, that was an action packed quarter. We have such a creative collective of artists. So creative that we are now looking at the entire year of programming. It is important to us to find an easier way of addressing all of our creative desires without burning out the audience. If you have a project that you would like scheduled in the next year, let's get them on the calendar so that we know what is upcoming. I am thrilled at everyone's response during the last year. Several things that we need to address are: storage, possibly a new floor and updated office equipment. Please stay tuned as we assemble a list of needs and their priorities. Peace to all! Happy Creating... Maqui

Volunteer Docents Needed!

Volunteer one day a quarter or one day a month or be a substitute docent to cover as needed at the Gallery. Join the Docent Team! Call Barbara at 783-2460 or Genevieve at 783-4710 to sign up for docent training (which takes about an hour). We need you! The Gallery can be busy, or it can be quiet. What a wonderful way to spend a day, enjoying all the beautiful art. If you have art for sale in the Gallery, you can increase your commission from 65% to 75% just by docenting six hours a quarter.

Thank You Volunteer Docents!

A great big "Thank You!" to all our volunteer docents. You are the best! Thank you for sharing your time and energy with the Gallery so it can be open more days a week and so Genevieve can have more time to do her work. You are wonderful. Congratulations to volunteer docent Randy Greysage for winning a free dinner for two at the Ancient Way Cafe. At the end of each quarter, the names of all the folks who were volunteer docents during that quarter are put into a "hat" (usually a bowl), and one name is drawn. That person wins a dinner for two at the Ancient Way Cafe as a "Thank you" for being a volunteer docent. What a delicious treat! And thank you Ancient Way Cafe for supporting and encouraging our Old School Gallery volunteer docents!

Artist Commissions

- Artists will receive a 75% commission instead of a 65% commission on work sold at the Gallery, if you
1. receive docent training and serve as a docent at the Gallery a minimum of six (6) hours per quarter OR
 2. are an active member of the current EMAAC Board of Directors OR
 3. chair an EMAAC committee OR
 4. submit and have accepted by the EMAAC board an equivalent volunteer activity.
