NEXT GALLERY SHOW

CROSSROADS

Featuring the art of PENNY HYDE in the Artist's Quarter

NOVEMBER 4, Opening Reception 3:00-5:00pm

In 2007, during a conversation with a gallery artist in Madrid NM (then a stranger) Liz, I found myself saying, "I used to be an artist, but now I'm just an art appreciator." This sparked a dialog with Liz about why that would be. Originally I was commissioning her to make a clay statue of The Singing Woman: keeper of the ancestor's bones, the guardian of the Spirit. Each Singing Woman holds in her hands an object designed for a special need, dream, or desire: a healing object for the receiver. After the dialog Liz said: I will make you a Singing Woman but she will be holding a 2 inch by 2 inch quilt that you will make. This simple task launched the beginning of my journey home, and, eventually, to a crossroads for me and my husband, Jon. The tiny quilt took 2 months to complete. Four months after Singing Woman arrived Jon and I met the Zuni Mountain Poets. Soon we took a leap of faith moving to Ramah, building a new life with new friends in an unique community with a focus on the arts. I have been quilting my "new", self-taught way ever since. Although heavily rooted in traditional quilting with it's original emphasis on form AND function and the use of materials on hand, I design most of my quilts as I go along. I often work without patterns, shun the quilt police and relying on spontaneity. "If it's too long, cut some off; if it's too short, add some on!" These quilts embrace imperfection as part of the inner truth, color, and fun in a modern blend of old and new.

THE GIN GAME

a play by D.L. Coburn directed by Eden Gloria
November 7 - 10 8pm

This winner of the 1978 Pulitzer Prize uses a game as a metaphor for life. Weller Martin is playing solitaire on the porch of a seedy nursing home. Enter Fonsia Dorsey, a prim, self-righteous lady. They discover they both dislike the home and enjoy gin rummy, so they begin to play and to reveal intimate details of their lives. Fonsia wins every time and their secrets become weapons used against one another. Weller longs for a victory to counter a lifetime of defeats, but it doesn't happen. He leaves the stage a broken man, and Fonsia realizes her self-righteous rigidity has led to an embittered, lonely old age.

This play will be presented at the Old School Gallery featuring Susan McNabb as Fonsia Dorsey and Donald Sharp as Weller Martin under the direction of Eden Gloria.

Show dates are Wednesday November 7th thru Saturday, November 10th. Curtain will be at 8p.m. each night. Ticket price $12.00. (At this writing, a matinee on Sunday the 12th at 2pm has been penciled in but we well have to let you know for sure at a later time.)

Tickets and reservations are available at the Old School Gallery beginning in October during regular business hours or by phone (505) 783-4710.

Ramah Farmers' Market Harvest Festival and Ancient Way Fall Festival

The 7th annual Ramah Farmers' Market Harvest Festival will join forces again this year with the Ancient Way Fall Festival. On Saturday, October 6 the Market will move from its present location on Lewis Street in Ramah and instead set up under the tent in front of the Ancient Way Café. The Market will open at its usual time of 10:00 am, with all its usual produce and craft vendors, and will run all the way to 4:00 PM. We will continue to sell produce until it runs out.

Returning from last year will be the RFM Harvest Festival events including the (7th Annual) Homestead Harvest Display and Pie Contest and Pie Auction – at 12 noon, and the (5th Annual) Beautiful Chicken Contest. New this year is the Garden Display exhibit, and a new category for the pie contest – the Homesteader Pie.

Like last year, all the livestock displays (including the chicken contest) will be across the street, under the trees beside the El Morro Feed and Seed building. This year the livestock displays will include a new rabbit display as well as sheep, goats and alpacas. Set up besides the livestock display will be a wool spinning demonstration.

The Ramah Farmers' Market which will be set up under the big tent in front of the Ancient Way Café, will also be featuring their usual vendors selling produce, baked goods and crafts. The Ancient Way Café will be featuring a barbecue at the new food tent along with other local food vendors.

ANCIENT WAY FALL FESTIVAL events will include:

- Craft Fair – Call 783-4706 to sign up
- New Mexico Fish and Game Kid's Archery Program and Youth Mule Deer Hunt draw.
- El Morro Area Arts Council Photo Contest –Call 783-4710 for more information.
- El Morro Monument Kid's Archaeology Craft workshop
- Homesteading Expo – across the street at Weather King portables including wild crafting and tree exhibits, solar demonstration, and El Morro Valley Co-op exhibit.
- Ramah Navajo Weavers Guild
- Zuni Bread Oven demonstration
- The Billyhawks acoustic electric blues band

New This Year:

Kid's Archery Program - Kids will be given an opportunity to learn how to shoot a bow and arrow when the New Mexico Fish & Game's Archery in the Schools Program comes to the Ancient Way Fall Festival on October 6th. The program is part of the National Archery in the Schools Program, which ensures that archery is taught in a consistent and safe manner. There will also be drawing for a youth Mule Deer Hunt on the La Tinaja Ranch during the December youth hunt season. The Festival program is sponsored by La Tinaja Ranch. For more information call Patrick at 505-240-3254.

The Ancient Way Fall Festival is located at the El Morro Community located on Highway 53 one mile east of El Morro National Monument. The Festival is sponsored by local businesses, non-profits and the Park Service: Inscription Rock Trading and Coffee Company, Ancient Way Café and RV Park, El Morro Feed and Seed, El Morro Area Arts Council, the Ramah Farmers' Market, and El Morro National Monument.

LP CAMOZZI

Lp Camozzi, children's singer/songwriter/author from Montreal, Canada visiting Ramah as part of his first three month tour of the USA. Dubbed "Neil Young for Kids", Lp will bring original songs about growing up, school and parents from his two albums titled Even Kids Get the Blues and Even Kids Get Country. Great for the whole family. Come laugh at his songs, sing-along and even learn to play spoons to accompany his guitar and harmonica. www.lpkids.ca

PAULA TRIPODI

After a long break, I am delighted to be back on the Gallery stage. I'll be playing guitar and singing my songs for you - some new ones, a couple of old favorites, along with a story or poem to share. It'll be a holiday treat for me if I see you there!

EMAAC ANNUAL MEETING POTLUCK

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13TH
AT 5PM

The El Morro Area Arts Council Board of Directors will be hosting our Annual Membership Meeting on Saturday, October 13th at 5pm. If you are a member of EMAAC (or would like to be!) please come. We will all review the past year, and look forward to the year to come.

We will also elect our new Board of Directors, and approve the budget for this fiscal year. If you would like to join the Board, please speak to Maqui at 783-4612.

We will be launching our Art Drawing at the meeting, and offering a door prize! The event is a great way to help shape the year's goals and vision, while sharing a meal with each other. Please bring a dish to pass for the potluck.

GRAZING IMPACT SEMINAR OCTOBER 13 11:45AM

This seminar, featuring Mary O'Brien of the Grand Canyon Trust, seeks to educate about the long-term effects of grazing and what healthy land should look like.

Presented by the Rio Grande Valley Broadband Group of the Great Old Broads for Wilderness. The presentation will be October 13 at the Gallery, at 11:45am until approximately 12:30 or 1pm.

Afterward, all interested parties can travel down the road to the meadow where the Tibetan Stupa is located, off Forest Rd. 50.

Directions will be given at the Seminar.

For further information, contact
Susan Ostlie, 505-275-9491,

BBQ and Auction a Colossal Success

Even though two other events in town meant fewer patrons at the event July 23rd, we still sold everything and had a grand dinner as well. The total, with cash donations, came to about $2,100, some $250 of that from the BBQ. The audience was a generous one!

I just checked the calendar and maybe we can schedule another BBQ/Auction for a Valentine's Day Soiree, Feb 9. We'll see.

CAROLING PARTY

Sunday, December 16 4 to 6pm

Please join with us for EMAAC's long-standing traditional gathering of neighbors to enjoy favorite carols and holiday songs.

Mark Gibbons, our local piano player extraordinaire, will be accompanying us. Please bring a dessert or snacks to share. Beverages will be provided.

OCTOBER 16, 7:30 PM

The Tiger's Wife by Tea Obreht (2011)

In a Balkan country mending from war, Natalia, a young doctor, is compelled to unravel the mysterious circumstances surrounding her beloved grandfather's recent death....That The Tiger's Wife never slips entirely into magical realism is part of its magic...." The Washington Post

We will meet at Fran Anderson's house. Call if you need directions 783-4803

NOVEMBER 20, 7:30 PM

The Turquoise Ledge by Leslie Marmon Silko. (2010)

"In The Turquoise Ledge, LMS combines memoir with family history and reflections on the creatures and beings that command her attention and inform her vision of the world, taking readers along on her daily walks through the arroyos and ledges of the Sonoran Desert, where she has lived for the past thirty years....[The book] is both an exploration of Silko's inner experience and a moving and deeply personal contemplation of the enormous spiritual power of the natural world."

We will meet at Chris Marlow's house. For directions call 783-4866.

THERE WILL BE NO MEETING IN DECEMBER. WE WILL CONTINUE IN JANUARY.

JANUARY 15, 7:30 PM

The Dovekeepers by Alice Hoffman (2011)

Nearly two thousand years ago, nine hundred Jews held out for months against armies of Romans on Masada, a mountain in the Judean desert. According to the ancient historian Josephus, two women and five children survived. Based on this tragic and iconic event, Hoffman's novel is a spellbinding tale of four extraordinarily bold, resourceful, and sensuous women, each of whom has come to Masada by a different path.The lives of these four complex and fiercely independent women intersect in the desperate days of the siege. All are dovekeepers, and all are also keeping secrets—about who they are, where they come from, who fathered them, and whom they love. Host to be announced.

All the books are available used online.

WE NEED DOCENTS

Yes, dear EMAAC members, the Gallery needs Volunteer Docents. Volunteer Docents keep the Gallery open on weekends and give Genevieve time to complete her work without interruption. Basically a Docent acts as greeter and cashier at the Gallery.

Docents also accept new artwork and sign out artwork to artists as requested. There is a Docent Manual at the Gallery that explains step by step how to complete all the Docent responsibilities.

To be trained as a Volunteer Docent takes about an hour. We go over opening, running and closing the Gallery step by step. Each Volunteer Docent receives a copy of the explanation of all Docent responsibilities at the training. Trainings are scheduled at the new Docent's convenience.

Volunteer Docents work each Saturday and Sunday. The hours are from 11:00 AM until 5:00 PM.

Please help us keep the Gallery open!

Please contact Carol MacRae to volunteers as a Docent at (505)783-2489, or call the Gallery at (505)783-4710. Thanks so much!

Jack's Corner

Thanks to all who helped make the BBQ/Auction a success!

We'll do it again maybe around Valentine's Day. We cleared a couple grand, more than enough to fund our youth programs.

We'll kick off our 1st annual "MidSummer Night's Raffle" the evening of the Annual Meeting, Saturday, October 13, at 7, and we'll draw winners at the Christmas Festival in early December.

The raffle features several groovy prizes, not just one. In California they would say 'bitchen' or 'boss' prizes.

The Ancient Way Fall Festival is this Saturday!

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

This is an exciting time of transition for EMAAC. The Board of Directors, led by Maqui, has had the courage to really look at how we might restructure our infrastructure to support the exponential expansion in our Programming here at the Old School Gallery over the last four years.

We are taking a leap together as we bring a Gallery Coordinator position to EMAAC- a person to do much of the databasing and intake for the Gallery, which will free me up to write more grants and find ways to help fund the dreams that are awakening here in the El Morro Valley Community. Please join me in welcoming Lisa McNitt to the Old School Gallery- I am thrilled to be working with such a talented and competent person! And many thanks to Maqui and our Board of Directors, who have worked hard to support this transition, both in their fundraising efforts, and in their willingness to envision new support structures for our community-based organization.

I also wanted to personally thank Barbara Duncan, who is stepping down from her incredibly active role as an EMAAC Board Member, Docent Coordinator, and Board Treasurer. Barbara has been more than generous with her time and lovely energy, and we are going to miss her. Best of luck to you, Barbara, as you take a much deserved rest! THANK YOU!

A thousand thanks to Jerako, for taking on the Newsletter again this quarter for us, and to Jane Chilton, who has been such a great help in coordinating the Gallery Calendar for all of us. And of course, many thanks to our docents, volunteers, Youth Programming Artists and support staff, and everyone else who pitches in and helps out. My friends, it is people like you who help keep this place going! Thanks!

In solidarity,

Genevieve

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Greetings Everyone!

Summer has once again raced by us. I hope your gardens were bountiful. It's funny how the first frost isn't a sign that fall is here, it's a sign that winter is right around the corner. Just a reminder to stop and smell the flowers.

It's all so precious.

Speaking of precious, EMAAC has to be one of the precious parts of our community. I'm so thankful for the art and events that continue to grace our community. I would like you to consider volunteering to assist our Board and Genevieve, our Executive Director. Whether it is donating desserts, assisting with an event, or docenting for the gallery.... Everything helps!

Blessings to all this season!

Peace,
Maqui
