Fourth Quarter 2013

Fourth Quarter Exhibition

"WITHIN THE CONTEXT OF NO CONTEXT"

November 1, 2013 through January 26, 2014

Quotes from Melody.

My statement in Duchamp's words, "My art would be that of living: each second, each breath is a work which is inscribed nowhere, which is neither visual nor cerebral. It's a sort of constant euphoria."

MEL=unpredictable change and movement, finger on the pulse,
Her pulse.
First painting, then sculpture, editorial photography and an amalgamation. Natural Progression constantly seeking, asking questions, provoking response.

This Quarter is filled with so much wonderful community-driven programming that we are going to let our efforts speak for themselves. Thanks to everyone who is a part of this wonderful, creative community! We would like to especially thank Zuni Youth Enrichment Project, who partnered with EMAAC to generate some great youth programming this Summer, and also generated over $1,000 each for area youth programs! We would also like to thank all of the area businesses and organizations who come together to make the Ancient Way Arts Trail & Harvest Festival a success. This is an exciting time: please consider joining our Board of Directors at our Annual Meeting scheduled for Sunday, October 13th, or call the Gallery to bring YOUR dreams into this reality! We are currently asking artists to consider putting art in our online fundraiser- rather than asking for your work as a donation, you will be paid for your work once it is selected by a contributor during the effort- another way that EMAAC is supporting local artists. We are stronger together!

In solidarity,

Sunday, October 6th at 2pm@ the Old School Gallery.

Cost just $2 (to help pay for the movie)

Queen of the Sun : What are the Bees Telling Us? is a profound, alternative look at the global bee crisis from Taggart Siegel, director of the Real Dirt on Farmer John. Together they reveal both the problems and solutions in renewing a culture of balance with nature. Excerpted from www.queenofthesun.com

Come join us and relax with snacks, popcorn, and good conversation

IX-Kan, The Jaguar Seed

A documentary film by Huilo Wonder

Friday, October 11th ~8pm

@ the Old School Gallery

no charge...

donations welcome after you see the film

This film is an artistic testimonial that shares an account of a journey as an artist and seeder of an artist-In-residence program and reforestation project in Central America.

Inspired by Zuni Mtn Sanctuary, Damanhur, Santa Fe Clay, and many other community programs, Huilo opens the gates to a marvelous story that reveals the process and magic of starting a new project such as Comunidad Jaguares Lunares. More than a travelogue, it's a way to inspire everyone to get on from apathy of the 3rd dimension and dream the reality of the 5th dimension into being. As an effort to explore cross pollination with communities such as Zuni and El Morro, Huilo extends an invitation to artists, teachers and metaphysicians to participate in this dynamic new mystery school situated in a coastal ridge in southern Costa Rica's Pacific side. IX-Kan, The Jaguar Seed is 1 hour with a Q&A afterwards.

Art for sale afterwards. All proceeds benefit Old School Gallery & Comunidad Jaguares Lunares.
