LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am honored to be the new President of such a wonderful organization, EMAAC. Our community is fortunate to have this EMAAC facility which supports the efforts of both our visual and performing artists. The Program and Planning Committee has a very active and interesting calendar of events scheduled throughout the year while the visual artists continue to share their talents with various types of media with us. We are planning on implementing a community survey soon to determine the interests and skills of people in our community. We want to know what kinds of programming you like best and are most likely to attend. We want to know how we can keep doing a better and better job of serving our community. The responses to our survey will assist us in planning programs and activities that match your interests as well as in expanding our membership base. If you have ideas or interests, let us know at 505-783-4710 or emaacdirector@gmail.com.

Sharron Dishongh,
Board President

FIRST QUARTER ART EXHIBITION

“Illumination”

By Maqui

Opening: Sunday, January 8, 2017 3-5pm

Exhibition Runs January 5–March 30

THOUGHTS FROM THE ARTIST:

When I started studying ceramics 22 years ago, I carved a lantern. My teacher’s response was that I was challenging the integrity of the clay and that it would give me results that wouldn’t please me. That compelled me to dive further into challenging the clays integrity. The lessons became clear to me. Patience, Intent, Observation, Perseverance, dedication, were part of the lesson plan. These lessons taught me more than just ceramics they taught me about life. Peace

The Old School Gallery and El Morroville have teamed up to create the ultimate sculpture trail. We are looking for new sculptures to help fill the trail. Please contact the Gallery or Pam Davis if you are interested in contributing a piece to the trail. We are planning a opening during our Gala on June 3rd.

EXHIBITORS’ NOTES

Fourth Quarter Art Pick-Up and First Quarter Submission Deadline: Thursday, January 5, 2017

If you cannot meet this deadline, please call Jane at (505)783-4551 or the Gallery 783-4710, to make special arrangements. Each exhibition has a theme/title which is chosen by the artist(s) featured in the Artist’s Quarter. The themes are meant to inspire, are open to interpretation and are never mandatory. Exhibition openings are in salon format and all exhibitors are encouraged to participate. Exhibiting artists are asked to bring finger foods to share.

2017 Second Quarter Theme: “Inspire Your Heart With Art”

Featured Artist: Tina Clawson

!!! ATTENTION ART LOVERS !!!

In the spirit of creativity and experimentation we are going to try something new at The Old School Gallery. We are excited to find out how you like it, so don't miss the next opening night on January 8 at 3 p.m., for Maqui's show, Illuminations.

Spring Equinox Visioning

March, 21, 2017 at 6:30 p.m., Come join RedWulf and Standing Feather for one of the oldest drug free visioning techniques available. We will instruct you on how to undergo a trance drum journey: Going up or down to meet animal spirits, guides, or ancestors, and other valuable mechanisms. We will offer two guided journeys during this time with room for artistic renderings after each one and a little time to share experiences. This is a powerful method to unblock stuck creative juices! Bring a blanket, a thick mat to be comfortable on the floor, and a blindfold to lock out external stimulus. Suggested donation is $5.

“Speak the Speech I Pray Thee...”

Actors’ Workshop

This quarter cycle will be focusing on Shakespeare with a final performance at the Renaissance Faire on May 6. First meeting will be January 14 at 11 am.

Lessons will be based on The First Six Lessons by Richard Boleslavsky.

1. Concentration;
2. Memory of emotion;
3. Dramatic Action;
4. Characterization;
5. Observation; and
6. Rhythm.

AFRICAN INSTRUMENTS
With Camilla Dodson
February 25 at 6:30 p.m.
Entry Fee: Free

Drums are probably the earliest musical instrument, common to all cultures. This presentation describes the role of music in traditional African society using drumming. In Africa, the role of music in society is for communication, ceremony, oral history, spiritual expression and entertainment it is so fundamental that many African languages have no word for 'music.' It is simply an ever-present part of life. Several kinds of drums are used in this presentation, and the audience will have a chance to play them.

Ukrainian Easter Egg Workshop

With Jackie Rossignol

Sunday, March 19th and Sunday, March 26th

1:00 - 4:30PM

$15.00 Includes supplies

The Old School Gallery

Ukrainian Easter Egg art, or "pysanky" is an ancient pre-Christian tradition practiced all over eastern Europe, Canada, and the U.S. Traditionally, in Eastern Europe and the Ukraine, women created these jewel – like works of art with eggs, vegetable dyes and beeswax during Lent, at night, after the farm chores were done. Come learn this ancient art and help keep it alive. Workshop includes your own personal kit to take home with you, and includes a beeswax pen, or "kistka", beeswax, and dye packets. This is a traditional craft requiring no experience and can be adjusted for every skill level. Eggs provided. For more info and to sign up call Jackie Rossignol at (505)783-4440. Please sign up ahead of time so the kits can be ordered. No one turned away for lack of funds.

"Seat yourself next to your joy and have your awakened soul pour wine" - Rumi

Some have said that there are as many paths to love as there are people. How do you ground within your joy? Is there a song, poem, dance, chant, prayer, soliloquy, or other creative offering that centers you in a loving place? This is a call for you to share that lovingness with others, as we hold sacred space together on Tuesday, February 14th starting at 7 pm. Original works are encouraged, but if you would rather share something written by someone else- given it's meaning to you- you are welcome! Let us weave together a loving, living co-creation. Please contact Genevieve to get involved at (505)358-0939. Suggested donation $5

THE PROGRAMMING COMMITTEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW....

What Events? We are looking for suggestions about what type of art, music, dram, lecture, spoken word events and workshops you are interested in participating in at The Old School Gallery. Please contact the Gallery with your suggestions.

We are a small community with a rich heart to attend and support our local gatherings. So we are trying to avoid competition for event participation. If you have an event that you are planning this year, let us know as soon as possible so we can avoid scheduling events that occur simultaneously. Also if received in time, we would be able to add your event to the community event section of our newsletter.

El Morro Valley Cooperative Annual Meeting

Saturday, January 28 at 2pm

@El Morro Valley Cooperative Building,
 Located at 3380B Bond St in Downtown Ramah

"Always bear in mind that your own resolution to success is more important than any other one thing."

Abraham Lincoln

Have you been wondering what progress has been made at El Morro Valley Cooperative? Well, the short answer is, "lots!". We have been working closely with architects, food specialists, contractors, and other professionals to navigate New Mexico's changing building codes and food safety laws...and our stubborn dedication to our Cooperative is paying off! We would love to share with you face-to-face on Saturday, January 28th at 2pm. You will have the opportunity to ask questions, get a tour, vote for Board Members, and get a feel for how the Co-op will be able to support your own food-based business.

Interested in joining out Board of Directors? Call Genevieve at (505)358-0939.

Ancient Way Fall Festival - October 7, 2017

Event Coordinator

Stipend - $300

Looking for organized and motivated community member with mad communication skills to coordinate the myriad aspects and entities involved with the awesome and growing Ancient Way Fall Festival. As a much loved community event that has only gotten better through the years, there are many volunteers and willing business partners to take on the work, we just need a single point of contact to help coordinate and delegate to the different arms. Is this you?

It might be you if:

- you have experience in event coordination, stage or production management or similar positions;
- you like email and phone and have regular access to both;
- you like lists, calendars, maps, and flow-charts;
- you like being involved in a vibrant, diverse, artistic and agricultural community;
- you like people; and
- you like an extra $300.

Expectations:

- start January/February 2017;
- be the common contact for local businesses, organizations, volunteers and vendors via email;
- coordinate and delegate nuts and bolts of event (tents, port-a-potties, sound systems, site and set-up map, parking, etc.) (with the advice/assistance of those who have done so before.);
- run approximately 4-6 coordination meetings in real life to delegate tasks, set schedule, and address issues with main parties; and
- be on-site coordinator for load-in, set-up, event, and strike.

If seriously interested, please email relevant information and a brief statement of your qualities with regards to this position to:

El Morro Area Arts Council
JoAnna Young
emaacdiretor@gmail.com
(505)783-4710

Please express your interest by January 1st.

Please be willing and available to interview early/mid-January.

The El Morro Karida Sangha is a group of neighbors who are exploring Buddhist principles in a collaborative and welcoming atmosphere. No previous knowledge of Buddhism is needed; just a sincere interest in walking with others on this path to greater understanding of Buddhist principles and practices.

Please join us on the first Wednesday of each month at 7p.m. Call Liz Herron (505)783-4545 for more information and locations of our meetings.

WAVE RIDERS OF THE ANCIENT WAY

Redwulf and Standing Feather are fully available for healing work. Please call the Wave Riders' Yurt at (505)783-4039 with questions or to make an appointment.

Navajo Winter Stories

Please join us at "Inscription Rock Trading" for "Navajo Winter Stories" as told by our friend Nixon Martinez from Pine Hill, New Mexico. Part one will be held on Saturday evening January 7th at 6:00 p.m.

It is a beautiful, privileged evening with Nixon. He is a wonderful storyteller and we are all reminded how fortunate we are to be living in such an exceptional place.

Please call us at \(505\)783-4706 to reserve a seat. Donations appreciated.
