SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT THE MOVIES!

Showing PRETTY OLD

March 21, 4-6 pm

When 30 women aged 67-84 from across America and around the world descend on Fall River, Massachusetts to compete in the 30th anniversary of the Ms. Senior Sweetheart Pageant, hilarity and heartbreak ensue. Under the doting attention of pageant founder and personality, Lenny "Low Price" Kaplan, these women share intimate experiences, discover new-found passions and stir lifelong insecurities that challenge common misconceptions of aging. Following four diverse competitors as they prepare to travel to and compete in the pageant, PRETTY OLD is a profound and intimate look into what it truly means to age beautifully.

This heartwarming documentary by area resident Walter Matteson dispels some age-old perceptions regarding beauty and self-worth after a certain age.

Your favorite movie treats will be available for purchase.

Monthly READING GROUP

Third Tuesdays at Members' Homes or The Old School Gallery

January 20: Covenant of Water by Abraham Verghese, Fiction 2023
A sweeping, multigenerational saga set in Kerala, India (1900-1977), following a Malayali Christian family cursed with deaths by drowning in every generation. The narrative intertwines their personal struggles with historical events, exploring themes of faith, family, medical progress, colonialism, and the deep connection between people and water, ultimately highlighting resilience and compassion.
Hosted by Rosalie Bianchi, 3:00 pm at the Old School Gallery

February 17: All the Beauty in the World: the Metropolitan Museum of Art and Me by Patrick Bringley, Non-fiction 2023
Bringley's memoir about leaving his job at The New Yorker after his brother's cancer death, becoming a guard at the Metropolitan Museum of Art (the Met) for a decade, and finding healing and a unique community among priceless artworks and diverse colleagues, offers readers an insider's view of the museum's hidden world and the profound connection between art, life, grief, and simple beauty.
Hosted by Laura Baum 3:00 pm at the Old School Gallery

March 17: Mad Honey: A Novel by Jodi Picoult and Jennifer Finley Boylan, Fiction 2022.
The story follows the case of 18-year-old Asher, who is charged with the murder of his girlfriend, Lily. Although initially convinced of his innocence, his mother, Olivia, is reminded of the similarities between Asher and her abusive ex-husband, Asher's father. Told from alternating perspectives, the story weaves in beekeeping lore, revealing how both mothers, Olivia and Lily's mom, fled abusive relationships confronting difficult truths about love, trust, and hidden identities. .

VOLUNTEER CORNER

As 2025 comes to a close, we would like to take this opportunity to recognize our volunteers. Volunteers are the lifeblood of our organization, selflessly dedicating time and effort to make a difference in our community. Without these unsung heroes, numerous programs, events and initiatives would simply not be possible. Our volunteers provide invaluable support and services that range from technical support to event logistics and staffing, filing and office work (docents). In addition, volunteers provide our community with numerous cultural, artistic and educational opportunities via sharing of their diverse creative and imaginative talents.

In this quarter's volunteer spotlight, we'd like to recognize the extraordinary efforts of Robert (Bob, Bob'll, Just Bob) Schafer. Since the inception of the El Morro Area Arts Council, Bob has been an integral part of the organization. His dedication, creativity, and positive attitude have been invaluable in helping us achieve our goals. In addition to fixing leaks, keeping weeds at bay, adding electrical circuits and setting up sound equipment, Bob has led the popular Geology Adventure series, and is a talented musician and songwriter.

Please join us in extending a heartfelt thank you to Bob for his outstanding service!

EMAAC needs you! Join Us!

If you love art and people consider becoming a DOCENT.

We are open weekends 11-4

Docent days can be monthly, quarterly or on call.

Contact Lori to schedule a training at lori.hanson@emaacnm.org

PLEASE NOTE!

EMAAC Board is in need of new members.

If you are interested in joining a working board to support the arts and artists in our community, or know someone who might be interested in serving on the board or a committee contact Gail at gail.ratko@emaacnm.org to set up an interview.
